Guide to Important Tables and Diagrams

Classification by Eponyms

Brado (Monteggia fractures) ··· 83
Frykman (distal radial fractures) ··· 85
Garden (basocervical femoral neck fractures) ··· 99
Hawkins (fractures of the talar neck) ··· 123
Le Fort (midfacial fractures) ··· 43
Moore (fracture dislocations of the tibial plateau) ··· 115
Neer (fractures of the proximal humerus) ··· 75
Pauwels (femoral neck fractures) ··· 99
Pipkin (fracture dislocations of the femoral head) ··· 61
Salter-Harris (epiphyseal fractures) ··· 14
Tile (pelvic fractures) ··· 54
Tossy (acromioclavicular luxations) ··· 64
Weber (ankle fractures) ··· 121

Classification by Location

Acromioclavicular luxations (according to Tossy) ··· 64
Ankle, fractures of (according to Weber) ··· 121
Atlas, fractures of (Type I – V) ··· 48
Calcaneus, fractures of ··· 123
Carpal bones, dislocations ··· 93
Dens, fractures of (Type I – III) ··· 49
Facial bones (Le Fort) ··· 43
Femoral fractures, distal (AO) ··· 101
Femoral head, fracture dislocations (according to Pipkin) ··· 62
Femoral neck, fractures of (according to Pauwels and Garden) ··· 99
Hangman's fracture (Type I – III) ··· 47
Humerus, distal, fractures of ··· 77
Monteggia fractures (according to Brado) ··· 83
Pelvis (Tile) ··· 54
Radius, distal, fractures of ··· 84
Radius, distal, fractures of (according to Frykman) ··· 85
Talar neck, fractures of (according to Hawkins) ··· 123
Tibial plateau, fracture dislocations (according to Moore) ··· 115
Tibial plateau, fractures of ··· 114

Miscellaneous

Arthritis, distinguishing criteria ··· 359
Bone tumors, classifications ··· 154
Collateral ligament injuries, stages ··· 112
Epiphyseal fractures (according to Salter-Harris) ··· 14
Fracture healing, normal time periods ··· 36
Fracture types ··· 13
Necrosis of the femoral head, stages ··· 219
Osteochondritis dissecans, stages ··· 235
Osteomyelitis, classification ··· 137
Prosthetic loosening, signs of ··· 104
